&
Alisa Ann Ruch
Burn Foundation

The Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation derived its name and inspiration from an eight-year-old child, Alisa Ann, who was fatally burned in a common back-yard barbeque accident.

Founded in 1971, the Burn Foundation works in partnership with fire fighters, educators, and burn care professionals to develop innovative programs and services.

Local 483 has donated $375,750 to the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation since we began our partnership.

AARBF is a 501(c)3 Organization.

Sprinkler Fitters Local 483 Scholarship and community Fund was created to help assist our members' children attain their goals of going to college, and to support local charities.

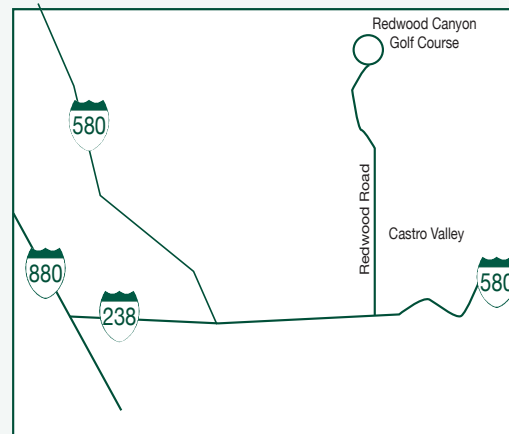

The Scholarship and Community Fund is a 501(c)3 Charity EIN# 83-3581334
