PHOTOGRAPH/INTERNET RELEASE

The Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation needs your help to provide burn prevention education and burn survivor assistance. You can help the AARBF to increase support for its valuable survivor programs like the Beach Adventure, by allowing us to use your child's photos for our website and publications. To do this, we need your authorization. Please check the box next to the appropriate answer and sign below.

Yes, I authorize the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation to use photograph and video for publication. I understand that my child's last name, the cause of my child's burns, and other sensitive personal information will not be revealed without my specific consent.

No, I do not want my child to be photographed or videotaped in any way.

INTERNET POLICY

Yes, my child can participate in the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation's virtual live online programs. I give consent for my child to access this platform. I understand that AARBF recommends a guardian to be present for real time programing and that AARBF does not recommend minors to be alone when using the internet.

No, I would prefer that my child not participate in the Beach Adventure's live programing, however, we still would like to participate in the other activities

Camper Code of Conduct

1. No abusive or foul language.
2. No Bullying. This includes, but is not limited to, name-calling, making threats, spreading rumors, or excluding someone from activities.
3. No smoking, vaping, or tobacco use of any type. No use of alcohol or drugs. Weapons are not to used or shown during virtual camp.
4. No obscene or inappropriate sharing of images, videos or content.
5. Listen to counselors and staff. Be respectful and pay attention.
6. Be respectful of the rights, privacy and property of others.
7. Dress appropriately.
8. Abide by all local, state and federal laws. If the camper displays disruptive or harmful behavior, every effort will be made to address the behavior and to work with the camper. If the camper's behavior does not change after counseling, support, and a phone call to his or her parents, it will result in the camper being discharged from camp. Campers who are discharged due to behavior issues will not be invited back.

I have read this contract with my parents/guardians and I understand what it means. I promise to obey the rules and I understand that if I fail to obey the rules, I may be discharged from camp and may not be invited back or may not be invited to future AARBF events.

Signature of camper: _____ Date: _____

I have read the above rules to (with) my child. I understand that while my child is at camp, he/she is to abide by these rules and that if camp staff feels that my child's behavior is disruptive and/or diminishing the camp experience for other campers, my child will be discharged from camp. I understand that I will be held liable for any damages incurred by my child if this code of conduct is not followed.

Signature of Guardian: _____ Date: _____

PARTICIPANT AND GUARDIAN CONTRACT

1. The camper and his/her guardian agree to abide by the rules and regulations set by the camp for the health, safety, and welfare of the campers (Please reference our Camper Code of Conduct Document). 2. AARBF reserves the right to dismiss a camper whose conduct or influence is unsatisfactory, or is, in the opinion of AARBF, not in the best interest of the Camp. 3. My signature below states I agree to the terms checked on the photo release, group survey, internet release, and code of conduct stated in this application	4. I hereby agree to release the Alisa Ann Ruch Burn Foundation, all their officers, employees, agents, volunteers and representatives whatsoever, from any claims, cost, expense (including attorney fees) and/or damages which any of them may sustain or incur arising out of my child's participation in activities at the Beach Adventure. 5. I am the parent or legal guardian of the applicant and acknowledge all answers and information on the application to be true and correct.
